SECTION H: CLUB PRIVACY STATEMENT & COMMUNICATION PREFERENCES

Teesdale Athletic Club take the protection of the data that we hold about you as a member seriously and will do everything possible to ensure that data is collected, stored, processed, maintained, cleansed and retained in accordance with current and future UK data protection legislation.

Please read the full privacy notice carefully to see how the Club will treat the personal information that you provide to us. We will take reasonable care to keep your information secure and to prevent any unauthorised access.

SECTION I: DATA SHARING WITH ENGLAND ATHLETICS

When you become a member of or renew your membership with Teesdale Athletic Club you will automatically be registered as a member of England Athletics. We will provide England Athletics with your personal data which they will use to enable access to an online portal for you (called myAthletics). England Athletics will contact you to invite you to sign into and update your MyAthletics portal (which, amongst other things, allows you to set and amend your privacy settings). It is vital, therefore, that a valid email address is given, so that you can ensure that your data is correct and so that you can set your own privacy settings.

If you have any questions about the continuing privacy of your personal data when it is shared with England Athletics, please contact dataprotection@englandathletics.org.

SECTION J: CODE OF CONDUCT FOR SENIOR MEMBERS

Teesdale Athletic Club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the well-being of all its members, ensuring a positive and enjoyable experience for all. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators, and parents associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with the Club Welfare Office or Club Secretary.

As a member of Teesdale Athletic Club, you are expected to abide by the following Code of Practice:

- All members must take responsibility for your own safety and listen to coaches' advice and direction.
- All members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background, religious beliefs, or sexual identity or orientation.
- All members must avoid irresponsible behaviour, harassment, physical or sexual abuse or bullying of any sort.
- All members must act in a responsible and respectful manner to members of the public at all times especially when wearing club kit, being a good ambassador to the club and wider sport in general.
- Members should recognise the valuable contribution made by coaches and officials who are usually volunteers. They give their time and resources to ensure the club works best for members.
- All members must respect officials and publicly accept their decisions.
- All members should be a positive role model, treat other athletes and officials with the same level of respect you would expect to be shown to you, and challenge inappropriate behaviour by others.

- Use appropriate language at all times.
- Members are not allowed to smoke, consume drugs during club activities or whilst representing the club.
- Members should keep to agreed timings for training and competitions.
- Members must wear suitable kit for training and official events, as agreed with the coach/team leaders.
- For off-track training sessions this includes Hi-Visibility gear as a minimum, with addition of reflective strips & lights preferred during darkness.
- In line with UK England Athletics directive the use of earphones during training sessions is not permitted.
- Members must pay any Club fees, Registration fees or other fees including events or club kit as arranged promptly.
- Encourage everyone to enjoy sport and understand that people have different motivations for taking part.

We look forward to welcoming you and your family to the club soon.

Why we need your personal data

The reason we need your Athletics Data is to be able to administer your membership, and provide the membership services you are signing up to when you register with the club. Our lawful basis for processing your personal is that we have a contractual obligation to you as a member to provide the services you are registering for.

Reasons we need to process your data include:

For training and competition entry

- sharing personal data with club coaches or officials to administer training sessions;
- sharing personal data with club team managers to enter events;
- sharing personal data with facility providers to manage access to the track or check delivery standards; and
- sharing personal data with leagues, county associations (and county schools' associations) and other competition providers for entry in events.

For funding and reporting purposes

- sharing anonymised data with a funding partner as condition of grant funding e.g. Local Authority;
- analysing anonymised data to monitor club trends; and
- sending an annual club survey to improve your experience as a club member.

For membership and club management

- processing of membership forms and payments;
- sharing data with committee members to provide information about club activities, membership renewals or invitation to social events;
- club newsletter promoting club activity; and publishing of race and competition results.

Any special category health data we hold on you is only processed for the purpose(s) of passing health data to coaches to allow the safe running of training sessions. We process this data on the lawful basis of consent. Therefore, we will also need your explicit consent to process this data, which we will ask for at the point of collecting it.

On occasion, we may collect personal data from non-members e.g. any non-member participant who fills in a health disclaimer or form at a taster event. This information will be stored for a limited period after an event and then destroyed securely. Our lawful basis for processing data is consent. Therefore, we will also need explicit consent from non-members to process this data, which we will ask for at the point of collecting it.

The club has the following social media pages: Facebook. All members are free to join these pages. If you join one of the Social Media pages, please note that provider of the social media platform(s) have their own privacy policies and that the club do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies. Please check these policies before you submit any personal data on the club social media pages.

Who we share your personal data with

When you become a member of or renew your membership with Teesdale Athletic Club you will automatically be registered as a member of England Athletics. We will provide England Athletics with your personal data which they will use to enable access to an online portal for you (called myAthletics).
